Narsaq, which means “the plain” in Greenlandic, is a charming town known for its colourful wood houses, where modern living is mixed with ancient traditions. It is an area of great geological and historical interest. Additionally, several interesting minerals can be found only a short hike from the town in the Kvanefjæld area as well as the Viking ruins of Dyrnæs and the Landnamsgård which are among the oldest Viking ruins found in South Greenland dating back to AD 1000.

Spend another night at Narsaq.

DAY 3: NUUK - SMALLEST CAPITAL IN THE WORLD

You will have the morning to sleep in or to do some last minute sightseeing. In the afternoon, you will board your flight to your next stop, the small and friendly capital city of Nuuk. After arriving and settling in at your hotel, the rest of the day is free for you to spend at your leisure.

For a good overview of Greenlandic history and culture, spend some time at the National Museum, which houses a large collection of objects, including kayaks, umiaks and ceremonial costumes. The Nuuk Art Museum also contains many traditional artworks. For a taste of more modern culture and art, head to the Katuaq cultural centre, which is also a great place for a coffee break.
